

Allan Botschinsky - born 29.03.1940 in Copenhagen

www.allanbotschinsky.com

Allan Botschinsky's career as an outstanding talent was extensively documented in Denmark until he moved away in 1984, to play with Peter Herbolzheimer's Rhythm Combination & Brass and Ali Haurand's European Jazz Ensemble.

Allan moved to Hamburg in 1984

He married his third wife, music producer Marion Kaempfert in 1990

They lived in Germany, Tuscany, London, and Switzerland

He retired from his professional life in 2015

He moved back to Denmark in 2017 and now lives on the island of Læsø

The most comprehensive and first hand information on the last 25 years of Allan Botschinsky's professional life will be his interview with John Baer from 2010, in preparation of his 70th birthday celebration in Copenhagen.

- https://allanbotschinsky.com/htm/composer_interview%202010.htm

His solo-albums, as well as his productions of selected artists are released on our jazzlabel MA Music

- <https://www.mamusic.de>

His most famous production as composer-producer-player is the meanwhile legendary First Brass

- www.firstbrass.com
- https://allanbotschinsky.com/htm/composer_interview.htm
- https://allanbotschinsky.com/htm/jazz_press_firstbrass.htm

This video from 2014 includes Allan's last public interview from 02 March 2014, at the Derek Watkins Memorial Concert in London, where First Brass was prominently featured in a live performance by the Super C All Star Big Band.

- <https://vimeo.com/395672655>

